

You CAN NOT limit the programming and offerings from satellite radio. They perform excellent services without annoying commercials. I would rather PAY for this service without commercials, than have to listen to other stations that repeat the same commercials over and over again. The Government can not infringe on their business.